Building Material Distributor Names Steve Wyatt National Account Director

-Parksite Appointment Drives Organizational Competitive Strategy-

Batavia, Illinois – April 8, 2010 – Parksite, Inc. one of the nation's leading building product distributors is proud to announce the appointment of Steve Wyatt as Director of National Accounts. "Steve's diverse building industry background spanning over 30 years, including regional manager for Chicago Metallic and VP of Sales for Eastern Distributors, enables Steve to provide the leadership and account management critical to our key national accounts," stated Ron Heitzman, President of Parksite.

In this new role, Wyatt's focus will be to strengthen relationships with these important accounts. "I hope to do this by understanding their needs and putting programs in place that make sense, and help lead to profitable relationships for these national customers, our key suppliers and Parksite," stated Wyatt.

"Our new organizational structure better matches our market strategies, enables us to compete effectively, and provides a clear vision for our associates, creating opportunity to increase shareholder value for employee-owners," adds Heitzman. The new structure consists of a senior executive team followed leading location cross functional teams covering all aspects of Parksite operations.

A 100% employee-owned company, Parksite firmly believes their competitive advantage is directly attributable to their employees. According to CEO, George Pattee, "Every one of our associates is dedicated to contributing to the success of both our customers and our suppliers. Owners produce the best results with integrity and honesty, and by doing that Parksite is successful as well. The dedication and excitement that is generated when everyone is an owner is extraordinary." Nationally, Parksite has 12 locations and over 275 employee-owners. More information about the company and its products is available at www.parksite.com.
